

Mr. C. H. Klug Has Taken Over The Juvenile Work For Our Office

The splendid increase in new business in our juvenile insurance has made it necessary for us to establish a department in our office, the work of which will be devoted exclusively to CHILDREN'S INSURANCE.

We feel very fortunate in having secured the services of an experienced insurance man such as Mr. Klug, to take charge of this department.

Hospital Radio Fund Increased $25 by Friends

The radio fund of the Torrance Hospital Association was increased $25.00 during the past week through the generosity of three friends of the hospital. This brings the fund to $152.00 according to Mrs. Willis Brooks, secretary, as the association cleared $127.00 on the dancing party recently. "The radio we desire costs $300," said Mrs. Brooks, "and we are hoping that some means can be found to raise the remaining $18.00, as the radio is badly needed." Head phones are installed in every room at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial Hospital so that convalescent patients may enjoy the broadcasts without annoying those whose condition will not permit of radio entertainment.

Lancaster-Post Luncheon Most Brilliant This Year

The luxurious new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Post made a charming setting for the most elaborate bridge luncheon of the early Autumn season when Mrs. J. S. Lancaster and Mrs. J. W. Post entertained forty-five guests Tuesday afternoon of this week. Amid huge bouquets of radiant Autumn blooms which embellished the living room, dining room and solarium, were placed ten tables with Halloween adornments. The Halloween motif was cleverly interpreted in the luncheon courses as well.

Honors at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Grover Whyte, Mrs. Raymond Young and Mrs. M. J. Fix.

Sharing in the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Broce of South Gate, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reeve, Edgar Reeve, Mrs. Lucy Reeve and Mr. and Mrs. Hurum Reeve.

MRS. BARKDULL HONORED GUEST Mrs. Sarah Hamilton and Mrs. Fred Galbraith were co-hostesses Thursday evening when they honored Mrs. Ross Barkdull with a surprise stork shower at the Galbraith residence on 21st street.

Mrs. Barkdull received many charming gifts, which were presented to her in a large clothes basket decorated in pink and white. Sewing and visiting occupied the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. Pink and white were chosen as the color motif, and these colors were used in detail.

Present were Mrs. Fred A. Corcoran, Miss Eileen Griffin and Miss Lucille Manley, all of Los Angeles. Mrs. Henry Chairline of Alhambra, Mrs. Harry Meskinen of Long Beach and Mrs. Tom Watson, Mrs. Aaron Lindley, Mrs. Ted Shaw, Mrs. Eddie Moore, Mrs. Iva Dillard, the honoree, Mrs. Ross Barkdull and the hostesses, Mrs. Sarah Hamilton and Mrs. Galbraith, all of Torrance.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB Mrs. Floyd Evans was hostess to her bridge club last Friday at her home on Portola avenue, who she entertained with an attractive bridge luncheon.

Pastel shades, reflecting lavender, blue and yellow were used in the table decorations. Mrs. E. W. Huddleston was awarded the honors for high score at bridge and Mrs. A. W. Greiner received consolation.

Guests were Mrs. R. J. Deiningner, Mrs. Ellis Harder, Mrs. Al Harder, Mrs. Ray Young, Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. E. W. Huddleston, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. Joe Stone, Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, Mrs. Frank Paur, Mrs. A. W. Greiner, Mrs. W. H. Stanger and the hostess, Mrs. Floyd Evans.

MRS. GREAVES HOSTESS TO CLUB Mrs. George Greaves entertained the Thursday afternoon club with a bridge luncheon at her home at 1903 Andrea avenue last week. Table appointments were pink and white and of unusual nature. Five baskets of daisies from the gardens of the hostess decorated the rooms.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Bert Dye, second going to Mrs. Frank Clark and consolation to Mrs. R. H. Smith.

Those present were Mrs. Joe Stone, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. A. W. Meiner, Mrs. Arthur Dodge, Mrs. J. E. Hagard, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. Bert Dye, Mrs. Harry McManis, Mrs. W. E. Dobby, Mrs. Frank Clark and Mrs. May M. Kinley. Mrs. F. B. Dilley and the hostess, Mrs. George Greaves.

BIRTHDAY DINNER AND BRIDGE The birthday of Mr. H. E. Corwin was celebrated Friday evening when Mrs. Corwin honored him with a bridge dinner at the Corwin residence on Acacia avenue. Pink cosmos decorated the tables, accented by pink place cards and tall tapers. Individual replicas of birthday cakes were served to the various guests, topped by one lighted pink candle. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wellman of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. Rex B. Sawyer of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Schuppe of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. Corwin.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS PACKMAN Mrs. Laurence D. Haarer entertained at her home, 705-C Sartori avenue, Friday evening with a surprise bridal shower honoring Miss Henrietta Packman, bride-elect of Earl F. Brown, both of Long Beach.

Decorations were in pink and white with bouquets of pink carnations used. A dainty pink parasol containing many lovely gifts was presented to the bride. As the evening's diversion bridal contests were enjoyed, the prizes going to Mrs. Edward Price and Miss Ruth Stanger.

Nut cups with tiny white wedding bells were favored and refreshments appropriate to the occasion were served.

Guests included Mrs. Oliver Wendell Jones of Los Angeles, Mrs. Edward Price of Torrance, Miss Ruth Sulzer, Miss Pauline Sulzer, Miss Dorothy Gunn, Miss Betty Hahn, Miss Ruby Packman, Mrs. Ruby Rynearson, Miss Edna Church, Miss Margaret Trainer and the honoree, Miss Henrietta Packman, all of Long Beach.

WOMEN'S CLUB PARTY IS HUGE SUCCESS The annual costume party given by the Women's Club on Friday evening, Oct. 11, was an unqualified success, socially and financially.

One of the largest crowds ever assembled in a hall in Torrance made merry to the tantalizing strains of music furnished by the popular Ambassadors orchestra. Some very charming costumes were seen.

Mrs. Koehler, of Keystone, won first prize for ladies. Her costume was an elaborate colonial dress. Miss Virginia Buxton, dressed as a French doll, won second prize for ladies. Mrs. J. Allen, looking like the village gossip back in 1910, was awarded the prize for being the funniest dressed lady. Col. N. P. Jamieson, as a Russian army officer, easily walked off with first honors for men, while Dr. Geo. P. Shidler, representing, as far as the observer could make out, the revolutionary Mr. Leon Trotsky, won second, while an Italian organ grinder and his monkey, most convincingly portrayed by Mr. Sam Levy and Mr. W. Harold Kingsley, were given the prize for the most comical gentleman's costume.

A vocal solo by Mr. Lou Drewer was very much enjoyed. Mr. Drewer sang "The Pagan Love Song," accompanied by the orchestra.

The committee headed by Mrs. O. W. Hudson, wishes to thank Mrs. Weiss, for assisting with the punch; Mrs. Milburn, who cared for the checkroom, and Mrs. Howe, house chairman. They also wish to express their appreciation to King's Nursery, Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Jordan, who furnished the beautiful floral decorations.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER John B. Young, Miss Ellen Young, Mrs. Marjorie Eichen and Miss Cleop Tolson, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Young and John Young Jr., Sunday at McKinley Inn.

Later in the afternoon they visited the charming, artistic home of Mr. and Mrs. Eischen in Menlo Park, where Mrs. Eischen entertained her guests with piano selections that are her own compositions.

SURPRISE SHOWER FOR MRS. DARLING Mrs. Edward Price entertained in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard Darling, Thursday evening, Oct. 10, by giving a surprise miscellaneous shower.

During the evening the guests honored and monogrammed a dozen tea towels for the honoree. Later a large pink petal covered umbrella, full of many beautiful and useful gifts, was brought to Mrs. Darling.

Refreshments carrying out the color scheme of pink were served at 11 o'clock. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Those present were Miss Harriet Poole of Oakland, Mrs. Betty Angel, Miss Bonnie Angel and Miss Pauline Fontana of Redondo Beach. Miss Betty Poole of Hercules and Miss Eunice Tansy, Mrs. R. Doolin, Mrs. Laurence Haarer and the hostess, of Torrance.

ETERI CLUB MET WITH MRS. PRICE Monday evening the 1200 club met at the home of Mrs. Edward Price, 705-C Sartori avenue, and gave a shower of staples for the benefit of the club. Many useful articles were donated which will greatly help the dinner treasury and the dinners to come, too.

Twenty girls were present. After the lesson, the last given by Miss Roman, the hostess, Mrs. Price and the president of the club, Miss Bessie Carroll served refreshments. The club will meet next Monday evening at 6 o'clock at the Methodist church.

The members are planning to give the new teacher, Miss Social Hickey, a cordial welcome.

MISS DAGOBERG HONORED AT SHOWER Miss Lou Dagoberg, whose wedding to Mr. Art Chaffee of Wilmington will be solemnized in the near future, was honored at a shower given for her Monday evening at the Nurse's home on Cota avenue by Miss Elsie Hemmerstrom.

Cards formed a major part of the evening's entertainment, after which the hostess gave each guest a hemmed cloth towel to embroider for the honor guest. No patterns were given, and the guests were given a choice of drawing their own or embroidering free hand and novel effects were obtained.

Orchid and white formed the color motif for the floral decorations and favors. A delicious repast was served to Misses Dagoberg, Barnett, Peterson, Shockley, McKinnon, McKean, Bond, May Forrest, Ingham and Adelaide Brunsden and the hostess, Miss Hamnerstrom.

Miss Dagoberg was the recipient of many very lovely gifts.

INSTALL OFFICERS OF AUXILIARY Officers of the American Legion Auxiliary were installed Tuesday evening in a beautiful ceremony at the clubhouse, Mrs. Margaret Kaeling, state president of the Auxiliary, was the installing officer, assisted by members of the Torrance unit drill team.

The clubhouse was effectively decorated in fall flowers, with a profusion of large baskets of zinnias and dahlias.

Those installed to office were Mrs. Phyllis Budge, president; Mrs. Mattilda Sager, first vice president; Mrs. Helen Hart, second vice president; Mrs. Alma Smith, secretary; Mrs. Nora Deiningner, treasurer; Mrs. Myrtle Schumacher, chaplain; Mrs. Jessie Reeve, sergeant; Mrs. Lucille Lewellen, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Nellie S. Crossland, honorary member of the executive board, and Mrs. Helen Leslie, Mrs. Eloda Barkdull, Mrs. Roxie Sleeth and Mrs. Annie Greiner, active members.

Mrs. Dorothy Harder, outgoing president, was presented with a smart fitted traveling bag as a gift of esteem from the Auxiliary. Mrs. W. H. Stanger was presented with a past secretary's pin, and Mrs. Phyllis Budge was given a huge bouquet of roses and carnations.

The new silk banner, which was a present to the Auxiliary from the Chamber of Commerce recently, was dedicated by Mrs. Carol Marie, national president of 8 and 4. The banner was dedicated to the mothers, sisters and daughters of the men who "went west."

Other guests during the evening were Mrs. Mary Richman of Redondo, committeewoman from the 19th district last year, Mrs. Fina Lew, outgoing president of the Redondo unit, and Mrs. Annie Greiner, president of the Los Angeles County council.

MRS. HARDER ENTERTAINS OFFICERS Mrs. Ellis Harder, outgoing president of the American Legion Auxiliary, feted her staff of officers on Tuesday evening of last week at her home on Cota avenue when she entertained them with an evening of bridge.

Honors were accorded to Mrs. Alma Smith and Mrs. Helen Leslie. A delightful midnight supper was served by the hostess at which time Mrs. Phyllis Budge, the president elect, was presented with a large ice cream cake moulded in the form of a telegram, and on which was an expression of good wishes for the coming year.

Guests of the occasion were Mrs. Nora Deiningner, Mrs. Mattilda Sager, Mrs. Cleora Stanger, Mrs. Helen Leslie, Mrs. Eloda Barkdull, Mrs. Alma Smith, Mrs. Jessie Reeve, Mrs. Mary Harder, Mrs. May Howe, Mrs. Annie Greiner, Mrs. Phyllis Budge and Miss Corlita Reeve.

On Wednesday, following the bridge party, Mrs. Harder was honored as guest at a charming luncheon given for her by members of her staff at the Brass Kettle in Long Beach. At this time she was presented with a set of lovely costume jewelry by her staff of officers. In the afternoon a theatre party was given for Mrs. Harder at the Capitol Theatre in Long Beach, where the party saw the Charles King players.

In the group were Mrs. Phyllis Budge, Mrs. Annie Greiner, Mrs. May Howe, Mrs. Mary Harder, Mrs. Jessie Reeve, Mrs. Eloda Barkdull, Mrs. Helen Leslie, Mrs. Cleora Stanger, Mrs. Mattilda Sager, Mrs. Nora Deiningner, Mrs. Corlita Reeve, and the honoree, Mrs. Dorothy Harder.

AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB Mrs. A. T. Stevenson entertained the Wednesday afternoon bridge club with a delightful bridge luncheon last week at her home on East avenue.

Each flower decorated the girls in a charming manner, and tall yellow taper centered the tables.

Who in the group were Mrs. W. H. Larson of Wilmington and Mrs. R. F. Bishop. Other guests were Mrs. George Probert, Mrs. Scott Ludlow, Mrs. Luther Pierce, Mrs. H. M. Haynes, Mrs. L. G. Danford, Mrs. Donald McCormick and the hostess, Mrs. Stevenson.

Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. L. G. Danford, with second place awarded to Mrs. H. M. Haynes.

LAFALOT CLUB MEETS Members of the Lafalot Club were entertained by Mrs. O. J. Bishop, Mrs. Dewey Quigley, Mrs. Walter Schlick, Mrs. Charles Vonderahe, Mrs. Waldo Darnell, Mrs. W. W. Scott, Mrs. C. L. Ingham, Mrs. W. L. Noff, Mrs. Louis J. Smith, Mrs. C. M. Rohring, Mrs. George Probert and Mrs. Paul Vonderahe.

Honors for bridge were awarded to Mrs. C. L. Ingham and Mrs. Waldo Schlick, with consolation to Mrs. Waldo Darnell.

ENTERTAIN DINNER CLUB Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pierce entertained their monthly dinner club with a sumptuous chicken dinner at their home on Anapola avenue last Friday evening.

Table decorations were cleverly carried out in lavender with lavender chrysanthemums on the tables and tall tapers of the same color. Places were indicated for Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ludlow, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Danford, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johns of Ontario, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce.
